INVITATION

The Section for the Study of the Finnish Language, Culture and Economy at the Institute of Scandinavian Studies would like to invite researchers, as well as graduate and undergraduate students specializing in different areas of Finnish Studies to participate in the international academic conference organized on the occasion of the centenary of independence of Finland:

Diverse areas of Finnish Studies: language - culture - nation

The conference will be held on 15-16 May 2017 at the University of Gdańsk (Faculty of Languages, address: Neofilologia, Wita Stwosza 51, Gdańsk-Oliwa).

The aim of the conference is to enable presentation and discussion of various areas of research currently conducted in Poland and around the world to a wider audience, as well as to integrate the researchers in Finnish Studies. The broad theme of the conference will allow for multidisciplinary and full scientific discussion. The proceedings will take place in thematic sections.

Working languages: Finnish, English, Polish. Participation in the conference is free of charge. Participants bear the costs of travel, meals and accommodation.

Submissions of topics for 15-minute conference presentations and abstracts (1500 characters) in Polish or Finnish and (mandatory) English will be accepted until 30.03.2017 to the address finkw@univ.gda.pl
