

CULTURAL COMMUNICATION BA

Dr hab. Mirosława Modrzewska, prof. UG

LITERARY, ARTISTIC AND CULTURAL COMMUNICATION

- connections between literature, art and society
- comparative studies: literature, art, myth, culture
- literature and social relationships
- visual narratives: landscape meanings, geography and literature - attitudes and values, "texts of place"
- semiotics of art and transmediality
- representation of reality in a variety of discourse (literary and non-literary texts, art and popular culture)
- studies of translation (intermediality)

The topic of the diploma thesis should deal with literary studies and/or studies in art and culture, literary and non-literary texts, popular culture, inter-media studies, or translation studies. It needs to demonstrate the Author's skills in analysis and interpretation, the ability to create an academic text with a clear thesis and logical composition. It should also demonstrate adequate methods of research, proper description, analysis and interpretation of the collected data.
